RE: Davies' Operating Scenario – Update

On August 31, Governor Raimondo announced that all school districts in Rhode Island had the “green light” to reopen for full in-person learning on September 14, with the exception of Providence and Central Falls. However, Davies decided to start the school year under a partial (50%) reopening scenario in response to community desires and the public health situation in our primary sending districts. Davies committed to periodically reevaluating our operating scenario and to do so specifically on November 13th to determine if changes were appropriate. After careful consideration, Davies will continue to operate under our partial (50%) operating scenario and will continue to follow our established hybrid schedule.

Davies will revisit this decision on December 23rd to determine the appropriate operating scenario after holiday break. We continue to follow the ever-changing public health situation and to make our decisions through collaboration with RIDOH and RIDE. We remain committed to responding to public health data should it require us to adjust our operating schedule at any point.

An updated schedule through December 23, 2020 is attached to this memo.

Please continue to check your email and Davies' social media for up-to-date information.

RE: Escenario Operativo de Davies - Actualización

El 31 de agosto, la Gobernadora Raimondo anunció que todos los distritos escolares de Rhode Island tenían la "luz verde" para reabrir para el aprendizaje completo en persona el 14 de septiembre, con la excepción de Providence y Central Falls. Sin embargo, Davies decidió comenzar el año escolar bajo un escenario de reapertura parcial (50%) en respuesta a los deseos de la comunidad y la situación de salud pública en nuestros distritos de envío primarios. Davies se comprometió a reevaluar nuestro escenario operativo el 13 de noviembre para determinar si los cambios eran apropiados. Después de una cuidadosa consideración, Davies continuará funcionando bajo nuestro escenario operativo parcial (50%) y continuará siguiendo nuestro programa híbrido establecido.

Davies revisará esta decisión el 23 de diciembre para determinar el escenario operativo apropiado después de las vacaciones. Continuamos siguiendo la situación de salud pública en constante cambio y tomando nuestras decisiones a través de la colaboración con RIDOH y RIDE. Seguimos comprometidos a responder a los datos de salud pública en caso de que requieran que ajustemos nuestro programa operativo en cualquier momento.
